

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Gave Surprise Party.

A delightful surprise party was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Arnett at Rivesville in celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Arnett's birth. A delightful evening was spent and refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Hood, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dailey, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Parsons, Mrs. Edward Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Downs, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Arnett, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Arnett, Rev. Yoak and Miss Jane Ballah.

Changes Hours.

From now on for several weeks the Fairmont Public Library will be open from 7:30 o'clock to 9:30 o'clock in the evening which is half an hour later than it has been the custom to keep the library open. A charge of five cents for telephone calls will be collected now as the telephone company will charge this amount for the use of the phone for extra calls.

Concert Soon.

The Royal Welsh concert company which has among its members three persons who escaped when the Lusitania sank will give a concert at the First Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday evening, May 15th. The company made a tour of America and was homeward bound when the ship sank. The company lost half its members and the three who will appear here survived and with others are touring America.

Mannington Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinkney Arnett Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Rutherford and family Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Toothman and Miss Flossie Rutherford, all of this city attended a surprise birthday party at Mannington given in honor of Guy Arnett at his residence Sunday. Delicious refreshments were served and every one enjoyed a good time.

Surprise Party.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Johnson until recently members of the choir of the First Baptist church, Mr. Johnston having been director for some time, the choir members gave a delightful surprise party last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston on Morgantown avenue. The affair was planned by Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, a member of the choir and a neighbor of the Johnstons. The choir members and a few friends assembled at Sonnencroft, the home of Mrs. Hutchinson and went in a body to the Johnston home where they completely surprised them. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston had invited a few friends in to spend the evening and it was while they were entertaining these friends that the choir members assembled. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston were presented with a handsome mahogany tea table by the choir. Mrs. Hutchinson making the presentation speech. Following a delightful evening the guests were invited to go back to Sonnencroft where they were served with delicious refreshments. Mrs. Johnston recently resigned as director of the choir which she had served faithfully for a period of a year or more and Mr. Johnston had been baritone soloist during her time as director.
